Blush is what the English call the very delicate touch of color that Blanc de Noir offers in the glass. The white wine from dark grape varieties is elegant in the nose and invigorating with notes of juicy, ripe nectarines, sweet cherries and blood oranges, which are accompanied by a creamy component. On the palate, the wine is a silky seducer with a vibrant round acidity structure.

The silkiness, vibrancy and red fruit pair beautifully with classic sandwiches topped with pastrami, serrano or tuna cream. Perhaps a Caesar salad to go with it?
