Volcanic rock is the basis for this fragrant, intense and slightly smoky Riesling. Vibratingly fresh and creamy with hints of lanolin as well as yellow pears, apples and green cardamom. This charmer gets its freshness from crisp citrus fruit that brings the acidity right along. On the palate, there is a wonderful balance alongside a polished texture.

Especially with river fish and white meat, this Riesling comes up trumps. If you like vegetarian food, it is ideal with Swabian noodles with three kinds of cheese, melted onions and a lavish salad.
