In the nose we can already perceive the wonderfully invigorating interplay of sweet and tart fruit. Apples, pears and peach meet lime and kumquats, accompanied by smokey, stony as well as creamy notes. On the palate, the Riesling unfolds its multi-faceted character, and the sweetness of ripe yellow fruit is nicely countered by a powerful acidity and a salty touch.

The slightly tart component of this Riesling makes it an ideal partner to intensely spiced, exotic-hot cuisine. More delicate dishes like fried goat's cheese or a salad of wild herbs pair perfectly well with this wine, too.
