Slightly cloudy and amber-colored it enters the glass. It shows aromas of meadow herbs, hay flowers, quince jelly, yeast and anise. The wine lives on a texture that seems crisp. Demonstratively dry; moderately fresh acidity and the bitter edge typical of Silvaner make it invigorating. It is a changeable as well as challenging wine to get involved with.

Refined vegetarian dishes with autumn and winter vegetables such as beetroot, cauliflower or pumpkin, strongly seasoned with coriander, curry or horseradish. Also great with smoked, coarse liver sausage with marjoram on rye bread.
