Pinot Blanc grapes and clayey sandstone result in a white wine with depth, structure, minerality and liveliness. This is evident in this Ortswein, which combines an earthy and stony spiciness with white lilac and a yellow fruit of and peaches. On the palate, the Pinot Blanc delights with its combination of a creamy texture, a delicate tannic grip, and exotic and smoky notes.

It is quite remarkable how much power this elegant wine exudes. Therefore, this Ortswein pairs perfectly with a Tafelspitz (boiled beef) with broth vegetables, potatoes and a bit of horseradish.
