The wine is bright lemon yellow in the glass. The bouquet is delicate and reminiscent of quince, mild apple, wild herbs, sage, but also anise, fennel, and nutty notes. It is pronouncedly dry and thus appears especially precise. The wine lives on a lot of spice, minerality and a long finish. With 12.5% alcohol, it has little weight but plenty of structure.

A refined wine which pairs perfectly with today's modern, vegetarian, low-fat cuisine with lots of herbs and spices. It is also great with marinated beetroot carpaccio, zucchini ricotta tarte with herbs, but also with pan-fried trout.
